REDSKIN SCORES AGAIN.

A card with seven events, including a hurdle race drew out as large a crowd to Forsyth yesterday as on the opening day. The weather overhead was perfect and the track amazingly good, considering recent weather. It improved too with every race. Only three favorites were successful, but Glenoid, Republic and May Galop were all well backed, so that the bookies did not have things all their own way. The Buffalo Club laid a point more against Republic than the others and suffered for its notion.

The principal event was a handicap at six furlongs for which there were form starters, Redskin with top weight being the favorite. Redskin laid back till half way down the stretch when he came up on the inside and won a good race handily at the end. Panout and Lillian E raced in front most of the way, and the first would have got the place easily, but owing to Cleary's bad ride, he just beat the mare by a nose.

San Gabriel was a hot favorite in the hurdle race, but after running well into the stretch he died away, Miles Standish came fast at the finish and won in a drive. Lord Lonsdale stumbled after clearing the third hurdle and McDaniels fell off, the horse going on and coming in first amidst applause. Fakir refused the third hurdle, but eventually got over and went the route.

ROYAL CHOICE WAKES UP.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 25.—The long looked for Montgomery Stakes was won by Buck Massie to-day in a big gallop. Jim Murphy's good colt established a new track record for the mile and an eight. Flying Dutchman's defeat was the greatest surprise of the meeting, and it must be credited to Martin's poor ride, he taking him up the hill at top speed. Emin Bey displayed great gameness in his race, he was dead lame and it was a shame to run him.

CALIFORNIA GOSSIP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 25.—Altamax, although he has not faced the Australian gate, is regarded as the best two-year-olds in California. He is by Maxim as are also Parthamax, Rowena B. and Fleur de Lis. These are four of the best two-year-olds in training, and will certainly add to the reputation of the Musket family in America.

Frank Phillips is playing in the hardest kind of luck. He is fully $20,000 loser on his California season. During the past week he lost heavily on Shieldbearer and Marjorie, both of whom should have won. The former was badly rated, while the latter filly, although pounds better than any of her field, was cut off several times and finished no better than third.

The win of Duchess of Milpitas in the Follansbee Stake, one and one-half miles, was very disastrous to the ring. It is estimated that the small bettors pulled $15,000 out of the ring which is quite a considerable sum, considering the game just at present.

Henry Wendt is no longer making book for George Rose. He will go east with Barney Schreiber.

Quite a number of Californians are breeding to Artillery, the recently imported Musket stallion.

Ed Corrigan has struck a winning gait and will doubtless stay out the season, which closes June 15th.

Frank Taylor, the new trainer of the Santa Anita horses, is infatuated with the Santa Anita ranch.

Ed Gaines will shortly leave for the east. He intends to operate around New York.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

"Hops" Landeman's Ramiro by Fonso is doing well at Memphis and is the hope of the "future bookmakers" as against Ben Brush for the Kentucky Derby.

In the best books on the big Eastern Handicaps, Henry of Navarre is still a stout favorite. For the Brooklyn he is 3 to 1, with Clifford 5 to 1; King Arthur II and Sir Walter, 10 to 1 each. For the Surburban the same ratio of prices rule.

Ed Corrigan evidently intends to test the starting machine patent in the courts. He has bought all the rights to the eastern Forbes patent, and declares that his company only owns the American rights for a starting device.

The two best three-year-olds in Kentucky are being prepared for the opening of the Kentucky Association's meeting, April 27. They are Semper Ego, in Dan O'Brien's string; and Bracegirdle, in Tom McDowell's stable. They are both engaged extensively in western stakes.

Kamsin is as game a colt as one would wish to see, says the San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman. When he gets alongside a horse he will win or do the next best thing, run a dead heat. He holds the record here, for in the only dead heat run here, he has been the runner up. Once before Gratify and he hooked up in the stretch at the Bay District, and ran a dead heat with him.

Barring Flying Dutchman and Halma, when Halma was Halma, Simon W. was the best of the western 3-year-olds of 1895, over a distance and at weight. Buck Massie was the next in smartest. Simon W. has done well and will start at Louisville. He is in the Louisville Handicap, 1 1/16 miles, only of the stakes. It is to be run May 14. Last Saturday Simon W. worked 1 1/8 miles, with his weight up, in 1:55 1/2, the mile in 1:41 1/4. That's smart going so early. The Dutchman and Prince Leif meet Simon W. in the Louisville Handicap, if their owner elect.
